LIBERTY WINES

Starting with a staff of just four, David Gleave MW founded Liberty Wines in 1997 with the support of some top wine producers from Italy.

His aim was simple and hasn't changed to this day: "I started this business determined to work with exceptional producers, whatever their size or location, with the belief that with hard work and by being stubbornly quality focused we would deliver the finest wines to our customers."

Now with a staff of over 100 and a portfolio of over 260 of the most exciting producers in the wine world, importer and wholesaler Liberty Wines continues to offer exceptional value and quality at every level.

Liberty Wines have been awarded numerous awards over the years including 'The International Wine Challenge 2016' and 'The Decanter World Wine Awards' just to name a few.

Trevor Hughes Wines

Although we started with the French 'classics' we now source wines from all over the world. We like to know the provenance of the wine, so it is important to meet the grower or producer at the professional wine tastings & build up a rapport with them.

By remaining independent we have total control over vintage selection. We get terribly excited when we find a real 'gem' of a wine. Good quality, well-balanced & well-made, at a sensible price."
